Title of thesis:
Exploring Airlines and Travel Trade Bilateral Contingencies:
The Managers and Travel Trade Views

Reason for non-disclosure application
The non-disclosure is requested for two main reason.
1) Internal data that has been used is sensitive for commercial strategy and stock exchange sensitive.
2) Some participants interviewed are easily regonizable.
As strategies will evolve and may change with time, and are the position of the managers interviewed, a two-year period of non-disclosure is requested.

End of non-disclosure period (maximum of 5 years)
January 2024

Please note that in order to inform the public about the research output of the Department of Business Administration, abstracts of theses are not covered by this non-disclosure agreement. If there is a greater need to protect not only the details contained in a thesis, but also the compressed information included in an abstract, it is the student's own responsibility to keep the abstract devoid of all proprietary information.

Application for non-disclosure of thesis must be signed by the student and the supervisor.
